Cohen's Lottery &amp; Exchange-Office.

"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

BALTIMORE, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18th, 1818.

The Next Capital.

On Wednesday after next, the 30th inst. the first drawn No. in the Masonic Hall Lottery will be entitled to a stationary premium of TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS agreeably to the scheme, (14th drawing.) A memoranda of the days for continuing the drawing will be found below.—The Lottery will be completed on the 24th of next month.

Great University Lottery.

The demand for Tickets in this Magnificent Scheme still continues, and the Managers anticipate the pleasure of announcing in a short time, the day for drawing.—Our friends in the country will be notified in time, of the contemplated advance in the price of the Tickets, which are still at the original rate of One Hundred Dollars. Orders addressed to this office, will receive our accustomed prompt attention.

The steam boat Virginia arrived last Tuesday from Norfolk, passed at anchor at the mouth of the river, a large Portuguese ship, supposed from Brazil, and captured by an Artisan privateer. She is in charge of an officer of the revenue cutter, and has been libelled by the Portuguese consul. The ship is represented to be from 900 to 1000 tons, draws 24 feet water, and has a million pounds of sugar on board, besides other cargo. A large part of her cargo must be taken out before she can come into the river. Neither her name nor other circumstances are yet known.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 14.

On Saturday last, THE TWELFTH OF SEPTEMBER, being the anniversary of the successful defence of Baltimore against British invasion, the Militia of this city, composing the Third Brigade, under the command of General Joseph Sterett, and the Fourteenth Brigade, under the command of General Richard K. Heath, paraded in honor of the day, and were reviewed by GOVERNOR RIDGELY, as commander in chief of the Militia of Maryland.

From the Boston Palladium.

The many persons we see with crossed feet, would induce us to believe there was no remedy for any of the irregularities of Nature, did we not have ample testimony to the contrary. There is a mother in this town, one of whose daughters was born with the right foot so turned up to the leg, that little appearance of a foot was visible; but this anxious parent, by constant care, gradually brought it to its right shape; beginning with it when the child was only two days old, and ending at twelve years. Every shoe, of cotton, leather, wood or iron, which was used to effect this very important alteration, is still preserved. The subject of this operation has attended balls, and no person could perceive any peculiarity. Mothers who have lame children, take pattern from this good example, and let your children bless you still more for future years!

SAVANNAH, Sept. 3.

Orders from the President of the United States to the marshal of this district, reached town yesterday, to have all the crew of the Venezuelan brig of war Gen. San Martin, arrested and committed to prison. The marshal is now putting these orders into execution. We have not yet learned what has caused this step.

LONDON, Aug. 13.

There was a report in town yesterday, that advices had been received of an attempt to assassinate young Napoleon. Several ruffians broke into his chamber and aimed a poignard at his breast, but which only wounded him in the arm. Three of the villains were secured; the rest made their escape.

The formal announcement of the evacuation of the French territory is reserved for the fiat of the Sovereigns at the approaching Congress at Aix-la-Chapelle. The measure is, however, already agreed upon, and October has been for some time designated as the period when it is to take effect. In the first week of that month, it is understood the allied troops will concentrate and move off together. Count Woronzow comes over to England the moment that his contingent marches home. The Emperor Alexander is to be at Manoege by the latter part of next month, and the Russian corps will reach the Polish frontier about the 1st of January.

IRUN, (SPAIN) July 21.

During the incertitude of the government relative to the hostile disposition which the U. States have unceasingly manifested towards Spain, it appears certain that the fine squadron which is equipping in the port of Cadiz (composed of the ships ceded to us by Russia, and such of our own as have escaped destruction) will not sail for America until the government can determine the footing of our relations with North America. This squadron consists of eight ships of the line, several large frigates, and a proportionate number of corvettes. The crews are complete. The force is almost wholly armed and equipped, and commanded by the best naval officers of the country.

REPORT OF PUBLIC SALES, Sep. 1818

The Public Sales of Groceries, &c. have been very limited this week, there is a scarcity of West-India Produce in the market, and some articles have changed hands at prices quoted.

At the several Sales of Dry Goods during the week, between 3 to 400 packages were opened, and sold by the piece, much at the rate of the last Package Sale. (Escaville.)
